OPERATIONS COORDINATING BOARD
WASHINGTON, D.C.

NSC Review Completed - RIF

October 19, 1953

A NATIONAL PSYCHOLOGICAL STRATEGY PROGRAM FOR WESTERN EUROPE

NOTE BY THE ACTING DEPUTY EXECUTIVE OFFICER

This paper was approved by the Psychological Strategy Board by vote-slip action on September 22, 1953.

By agreement of the Board Assistants to the Operations Coordinating Board, successor to the Psychological Strategy Board, this program will be kept under continuing review by a working group of the Operations Coordinating Board, particularly with respect to amendments or modifications necessary (a) to bring them in line with new NSC policy and (b) in response to new proposals and action within the framework of existing policy.

Any such amendments or modifications which are of major significance with respect to magnitude or emphasis will be referred to the Operations Coordinating Board before being implemented.

BYRON K. ENYART
Colonel, USAF
Acting Deputy Executive Officer
